CREATING SAFER COMMUNITIES
Giving Hope To Extraordinary Children

2016 ANNUAL REPORT

Robertta’s House
A Family Grief Support Center
CREATING SAFER COMMUNITIES
THANK YOU FOR GIVING HOPE TO EXTRAORDINARY CHILDREN

A Message from the President

Roberta’s House battles a grief epidemic that holds some communities and families hostage. As Baltimore’s crime rates continue to climb, the need for grief support rises. 2016 is Baltimore’s second deadliest year on record.

Children are exposed to multiple deaths in their families and on-going violence in their neighborhoods. They experience feelings of hopelessness, and grief reactions to tragedies they don’t understand. Roberta’s House gives the emotional support and understanding they need to heal.

Roberta’s House is creating paths to grief support in urban communities. We are rebuilding grief stricken neighborhoods where each child, teen, and adult have a support system. The children and parents we reach no longer hide their concerns and fears about their trauma. We provide an environment where they feel safe to share their stories.

Through our programs, many have come to learn their feelings of anger, sadness, and hurt, are normal, and how to manage them in healthy ways. We work with families to encourage making the home a place where children feel nurtured and protected. Through Roberta’s House, healing is made possible in the urban communities.

Out of 318 homicides in Baltimore, more than a dozen of the lives taken were children. 91.5% of the black men killed left children fatherless. When the violence rips families and communities apart, Roberta’s House is there to support the survivor. When it affects the schools, workplaces, and public spaces, Roberta’s House is ready to teach how to cope. As the grief epidemic continues to spread, more support is needed.

At Roberta’s House, we have over 500 volunteers committed to providing grief support to the communities under siege. We work to build allies in the neighborhoods that join us to reject the violence and crime to support healing. We work tirelessly to keep the children filled with hope, and our communities healthy.

It is because of your support that our work is possible. Your investment in Roberta’s House and the communities we serve truly make a difference. Thank you for your continued support!

WHAT WE DO

Roberta’s House is the leading provider of grief support services to children, teens, families, and adults in urban communities. It offers free programs, trainings, and workshops at a safe place to those who need it most. As an advocate of grief healing in neighborhoods with limited means of support, Roberta’s House promotes awareness and provides education on the issues of grief. Our support groups and healing circles for children, teens, and adults help them to understand grief, its process, and how to cope.

Roberta’s House has professional licensed social workers and advocates who make home visits to mother’s who have lost their infants and to families who have been traumatized by a homicidal death. Roberta’s House encourages and models its support for families with children. Our greatest concern is to assure that individuals get the help they need and do not remain isolated in their grief.

FINDINGS OF GRIEVING CHILDREN

Most children have difficulty adjusting to the loss/death:

- 77.37% children/teens have some emotional problems (clingy, cries a lot, angry, nervous ticks, feeling guilty
- 56% had difficulty concentrating (doing school work, paying attention, following directions)
- 46.91% had aggression problems (anger easily, aggression towards other kids, fighting, mood swings
- 52.67% have adjustment problems overall

Tyler’s Story, 7 years old

Program: Rays of Hope

“Sometimes I feel sad that someone killed my brother. When I feel sad I try to think about the fun times together. I think about how he used to make me laugh. I miss my brother. He was my only brother. He used to help me. When I feel sad, Roberta’s House taught me it’s okay to cry. I like Roberta’s House there are kids there like me. We have fun there. Roberta’s House taught me how to make a memory box. Sometimes I look inside my memory box. It has all the special memories about my brother.”

A Journey to Restore Hope: Personal Stories

Vickie’s Story
Program: Still a Mom

“I always wanted to be a mother. I finally was able to carry past 3 weeks. They gave me a baby shower when I was 8-1/2 months pregnant. I had been secretly shopping all along. I knew I was having a girl. We were going to call her Serenity. My baby, Serenity did not make it. I saw the chord around her neck after I delivered her. The doctors cried too. I walked out of the hospital alone. I grieved heavily. Without Roberta’s House I would have never made it.”
